Exorcist's Handbook by Stephan Olson ISBN 0615748880

What is to be learned about exorcism? How and why does it work? What is the shrouded history about exorcism really all about? This text is the first full comprehensive edition of the previously published text: Exorcism Now. Not only does this text provide the classic Rite of Exorcism, but also includes the Blessing (Exorcism) of a residence, Exorcism Preparation Notes, The History of Exorcism in two additional articles, as well as never before published renditions of the Official: Ordination into the Priesthood, and the Appointment of the Office of Exorcist (the official ritual making a Exorcist). Learn it, study it, and understand its complete and full use and application in your life and the lives of others. This text is an important religious facet, not only for information purposes but an initial text to consult and view the great history and tradition that lays dormant in today's society.
