How To Win Friends And Influence People for Kids (Positive Parenting: How to Avoid the Pitfalls and Raise A Child You Can Be Proud Of Book 3) by Katrina Kahler ISBN B008VEKVTM

A truly happy child always has at least one friend. For some children making and keeping friends comes naturally, but for others, friendship problems can make them feel very sad and lonely. As adults, most of us assume that children know how to approach and talk to friends, but this isn't always the case. How To Win Friends And Influence People for Kids shows you how to teach these skills to your child. Once they have started to master these interpersonal skills, they will naturally attract friends.

This wonderful book also gives your child information and skills to practise so that they can be more popular and a leader among their peers. This is not only a great skill to have at school...but the benefits will continue to add to a successful and happy time all through their lives.

Karen Campbell and Katrina Kahler are two highly experienced teachers who have shown hundreds of children how to make friends, become more popular and maintain positive and happy relationships.

This book is part of a series called 'The Parenting Trap: How To Avoid The Pitfalls and Raise A Child You Can Be Proud Of'.
