In the Footsteps of Elisha by Robert I Holmes ISBN 1862630615

Elisha the prophet was one of the greatest figures in the Old Testament. His ministry prefigures most of the significant works of the Son of God: healing a sick general; feeding the multitudes, restoring life; resurrecting the dead; raising up schools of disciples in ministry. The life of Elisha provides a complete index guide to the gift of prophecy, the prophetic ministry in the Church and the role of prophet in the world. Robert has been in prophetic ministry for over 15 years. This vital book covers the basics, as well as topics not covered in other books on this subject.
