Salina knows she is different; what other teenager can separate their mind from their body? That does not mean she is not attracted to the rugged masculinity of a handsome new student.

Unaware that the life she knows is all a lie, heartbreak sends her running right into the hands of the demons that hunt her. If not for the strength of the handsome Tamerlane, she would have discovered herself at the mercy of none other than Sataniel.

On the run from the demons hunting her, Salina must remember who she is. Slowly the heart wrenching and terrifying memories begin to return. With their horrifying past threatening to repeat itself, Tamerlane makes a fatal decision. Abandoned and defenseless, Salina quickly finds herself captivated by the compelling eyes of Sataniel.
