Do all the people in books seem boring? Not anymore!

In school, everyone you read about can seem perfect and dull. In this book, see all of the celebrities of history, science, literature, and politics in a new light as they are re-imagined as tweens and teens. What was Genghis Khan like in gym class? Was Shakespeare likely to get a girlfriend? Did Marie Curie's experiments ever fail, big time? Was Susan B. Anthony bossy? Look inside this book and find out! A fun read for students and a great tool for teachers, these monologues are surefire winners in auditions or the classroom.
