Winning the Queen's Heart: Contemporary Christian Romance (The Brides of Belles Montagnes Book 2) by Carol Moncado ISBN B016CB3UR0

Christiana Elizabeth Marissa Abigail has been queen of Ravenzario since her family died in a horrific car accident when she was five. Her uncle acted as her regent until she was of age. In the last year, the uncovering of his duplicity shook the country's faith in her - and her faith in herself. At least she is finally going to get to marry her secret boyfriend. Isn't she?

American Alexander Bayfield has been in love with the queen of his adopted country for years. A chance conversation, one he wasn't supposed to overhear, inserted him into Queen Christiana's inner circle. For two years, he's watched as her relationship with a man he knows to be evil progressed. The evidence to finally put him away for good has been uncovered and it's up to Alexander to break the news to her.

The aftermath leaves Alexander as the only one Christiana can turn to, the only one who can protect her reputation and, more importantly, her heart. Will he be able to win it for himself, or will secrets from his past, paparazzi who tell stories before checking facts, and the long-reaching tentacles of her uncle's empire keep them from finding love?
