What would you do to improve your life? Twenty-one-year-old Serena Thomas is faced with a tough decision. Unable to get ahead of debt and loneliness since her grandmother's death she finds a new job, placing the sheltered virgin in an underground escort business. She tells herself it's just a temporary life choice, but destiny has a different plan. She meets a mysterious and gorgeous man, who happens to be her new boss. Will Serena fit in or will she be left all alone again? Lincoln (aka: Linc) Jefferson has an unusual life. He established The Lounge, an exclusive escort club for very personal reasons. A place where the women say who, when, and what type of sex they're willing to have. The escorts possess all the power and the money. It's a business Linc guards at all costs. Trying to maintain the secrecy is a constant challenge and one that's tested when he enters into a relationship with Serena. She tempts him unlike any woman, even though he's surrounded by beauty on a daily basis. The more time they spend together the harder it is for him to keep his secrets. Will Serena stand by his side or will she abandon him? Sparks and passion fly, taking these two on a journey neither could have expected. Contains mature content and language. Not recommended for readers under the age of eighteen due to sexual situations and subject matter.
