Holy Spirit (Unfinished Agenda) by Johnson TK Lim ISBN 9814597643

A constellation of stellar scholars, theologians, educators, historians, professors and pastors, comprising 19 women and 51 men from different institutions, denominations and countries, have been assembled to bring their wealth of research and classroom experience to clarify the person, role and work of the Holy Spirit. These essays (several of them ground-breaking) will inform, instruct and serve as gateways to the person and work of the Holy Spirit. They offer succinct answers to some general questions and address specific interpretive and vexing issues.

The entire book covers five foci: biblical, theological, historical, ecclesiastical and practical. The essays are introductory, offering an overview of the Holy Spirit in connection with Scripture (OT and NT), Hermeneutics, Homiletics, Theology, Church History, Contemporary Church, Christian Living, Ministries, Personalities, and Pneumatological issues.

Read this book, and let your mind be illumined about the Holy Spirit.
