Thank you, my readers, for making this book into the bestsellers' list in Humor>Essays and Humor>Parenting & Families categories!

What is "typical man's" or "typical woman's" behavior? Are we supposed to perceive our partner's shortcomings as something impossible to change? Is it possible to just accept our loved ones for who they are? Sometimes we know them well enough to be able to predict their behaviors. From time to time the actions of the opposite sex leave us more confused than ever before.

In my quest to understand a male soul, I decided to start with the closest man in my life – my husband. There are situations, events and adventures from real life presented in the form of short stories. The book is for you, if you are looking for something that will entertain and make you laugh.
NOTE: This is a short book of 6,353 words – ideal for fast read!
