The Funniest People in Theater: 250 Anecdotes by David Bruce ISBN 0557050588
Paperback edition. This book contains 250 anecdotes about the theater, including this one: Actor John Neville was unhappy in the late 1950s Old Vic production of "Measure for Measure," so he used to escape to the nearest pub as often as possible. In fact, just before the pub opened at 5:30 p.m., he would lean against the door. When the door was opened, he would fall inside and say, "Sorry I'm late."
