Women, Men and News: Divided and Disconnected in the News Media Landscape (Routledge Communication Series) by Paula Poindexter, Sharon Meraz, Amy Schmitz Weiss ISBN 0805861025

This multi-authored scholarly volume explores the divide between men and women in their consumption of news media, looking at how the sexes read and use news, historically and currently, how they use technology to access their news, and how today's news pertains to and is used by women. The volume also addresses diversity issues among women's use of news, considering racial, ethnic, international and feminist perspectives. The volume is intended to help readers understand adult news use behavior--a critical and timely issue considering the state of newspapers and television news in today's multi-media news environment.
