"Inspirational author, Aimee Martin, with her polished and down to earth style draws you in to a beautiful, emotional tale so true to life you get the sense you are hearing the story over coffee with the girl next door." Leah Lawrence, contributing writer for the Messianic Times

Sometimes childhood dreams come true. They did for Brinley Lambert. Hard work and study saw her climbing to the heights as a young actress until a horrible accident took the life of someone she loved and her dream became a nightmare.

Faith shouldn't be fragile, but Brinley's died in that accident and she buried it along with her best friend's coffin. When she said goodbye to Annie Cross, she closed the door on God and any desire for a future filled with love and happiness. But a handsome stranger in a Stetson strolled into her life and showed her that things are not always as they seem...
