A woman called Truth: A play in two acts celebrating the life of Sojourner Truth by Sandy Asher, Sandra Asher ISBN 0871293056

This play celebrates the life of Sojourner Truth, from the day she is sold away from her family, through her struggle to free herself and her son, to her emergence as a popular and respected advocate of abolition and women's rights. Combining her actual words with authentic slave songs and spirituals of the time, this Joseph Campbell Award winning play has been honored by the National Endowment for the Arts, the American Alliance for Theater and Education, and the IUPUI Children's Theater Symposium. It is vibrant with truth.
