Seeing Slater again would cause Chris pain

Natalie had always known how desperately in love with Slater Chris had been, and she'd arranged things so that Chris would have to return to England and face the man who'd rejected her. For as a final malevolent gesture she'd entrusted her daughter to Chris's care.

It would be hard facing Slater again, knowing that he'd shared Natalie's bed and given her everything Chris had dreamed of--marriage and his child.

Chris was torn between her response to a little girl's suffering and her fear of resurrecting her own foolish dreams.
