Discover God's will in decision-making

Life is full of tough decisions. How do you know you're making wise choices that fall within God's will? Five important factors can help. Rather than base your decisions on a chance remark or an isolated verse of Scripture, look instead to the God-given resources available to help you make choices that match His will. Prayer, Scripture, and the advice of other trusted believers are just the beginning. Learn how to separate God's will from the pack of alternatives and start making sound decisions.
