Tales for a Rainy Night by Cristina Pantoja Hidalgo ISBN B0089MYYNA

"We are told that children gaze with wonder and see mystery and magic in the mundane. And we envy this in them. As I grow older, however, I find more to marvel about than I did in my youth.

"So, from writing news copy and feature articles, realistic fiction, travel essays and autobiographical narratives, I am now spinning tales. For the world of tales is the land of legend and dream, even if the characters move and speak in the here and now. And sometimes, it seems to me that only sorcery and enchantment can capture the strangeness of 'real life.'" – Cristina Pantoja Hidalgo

"One wishes to escape wholeheartedly into a magical world ... [to be] led by a loving storyteller who has a gift for making the magical appear real and the real, magical. All of this, I dare say, is made possible by Cristina's handling of light and sound as in a magician's conjuring of myriad appearances and disappearances with the extremest ease. ... in these highly sophisticated tales from a sophisticate whose art has been honed by travel." – Amelia Lapeña-
