The Wrong Shade of Lipstick by B.M Hardin ISBN B00ICRJQ26

Are People ever truly who you think they are or who they appear to be?

Coming up in a small town and as the local preacher's daughter, Skilar Parks found herself constantly struggling to find her own identity.

Before long and unexpectedly, her past and her present began to collide and secrets that she thought would stay hidden forever; are out in the open for everyone to see.

The unthinkable become her first thought, the unbearable becomes her first actions, and the unsaid seemed to be the very thing that everyone was talking about.

300+ pages of a Sassy, Sexy, Thrilling Novel that Invites Readers on a Roller Coaster Ride of Love, Lies and Deceit

In due time, the truth always comes to the light and in Skilar's case, the lights are on and with secrecy, history, and disloyalty suddenly all around her, Skilar quickly learns that no one can be trusted...not even the people she trusts the most.
