The Whole Beast by Kingfisher Pink ISBN B00WG9GL42

On a drizzly February afternoon in the Pacific Northwest a local news crew stepped into a small patch of woods to film a story on truffle hunting. It wasn't long before they realized they were not alone.

To be held responsible for the discovery of Bigfoot is one thing, to have accidentally killed the beast in the process is quite another. Camrose Rose considered himself many things: a broadcaster, a man of taste and opinion, a gastronome and a connoisseur of fine wine. The one thing he never thought he would self-identify as was a monster hunter. But sometimes fate has a way of deciding otherwise.

They say that every meal is an adventure and isn't that just the offal truth. Sometimes you simply must engage the whole beast.

Take it from Camrose Rose, gourmet monster hunter.
