Abby Pierce has created a good life for herself. She's worked hard to fulfill her dreams and find happiness in her life. All her illusions change the night she enters her favorite book store to attend a book review. Will Dean be able to convince her that there is a life that offers more than satisfaction - one that offers not only contentment but one filled with passion she can only dream of. Knowing the door he is opening leads to giving up some of the control she holds onto so tightly, Abby must make her choice. Can she submit to a man that will not only make her heart pound with desire but her bottom burn with his discipline. With Dean by her side, can she take a chance and open the door to life's many possibilities? Will submission set her free and will she discover life's true treasures?
