Lingam and Yoni Massage Lessons: Erotica by Helen J Perry ISBN 1502971143

In the first story, Lingam Massage Lessons, a group of ladies practise the art of penis massage. Six ladies on a one day course, each has different reasons for being there. Lucy takes things further seeking out extra training. In My Yoni Massage one of those ladies volunteers for trainees to practice erotic massage on her. Jill is a working married mum in her thirties who has been with her husband for years. She loves him and they have a good sex life but she is sure it could be even better. Without any sense of guilt she volunteers to be a body for a training session, the lesson is about the erotic art of massaging women with the goal being mind blowing orgasms. Why should she feel guilty, it is just a massage, right? And she did invite her husband to go on such a training session with her but he scoffed at the notion: they do run these sessions for couples, you know. This book is pure erotica. Typical of HJ Perry's imagination: women looking for sex and better sex without romantic connections being necessary. The stories total about 13,000 word and are ideal for reading out loud in bed with your partner.
