The Ghost of Nicholas Greebe by Tony Johnston ISBN 0803716494

An old New England farm becomes a haunted homestead when a dog unearths a bone belonging to Nicholas Greebe. Pots levitate over the stove, animals bristle, and a ghostly form appears before the hearth. Year after year, the haunting continues--until the bone finds its way back home and Nicholas is put to rest. With just the right mix of humor and suspense, this old-fashioned ghost story is perfect for young readers.

"A splendid answer to the perennial request for a not too spooky story." --The Horn Book
