Jerry Wolman: The World's Richest Man by Joseph Bockol, Richard Bockol ISBN 1934696455

Jerry Wolman: The World's Richest Man is the never-been-told true story of Jerry Wolman, the Cinderella builder from the coal mining region of Pennsylvania, who came from nothing and made it big. Capturing national attention in 1963 when he purchased the Philadelphia Eagles, he became the youngest owner in the National Football League. Wolmans rapid success, along with his boyish charm and legendary generosity, made him an icon of his day. However, in attempting to build one of the worlds tallest buildings, the John Hancock Center in Chicago, he ran into severe construction problems, causing his $100 million empire to topple.

Jerry Wolman: The World's Richest Man is the remarkable tale of one mans heartfelt meteoric rise and fall, and the thousands he touched throughout his larger-than-life journey.
