Social Communication - The Highly Essential Skills To Connect With People Around You by Kathleen Rogers ISBN B017VRJD2A

Communication is key.

The way you START a conversation, the way you KEEP a conversation going, the way you ENGAGE in a conversation, the TONE you use, the CONTENT you say, each and every one of these matters a lot!

Very often, people complain that they are misunderstood, maligned, that their friends are avoiding them, judging them, gossiping about them. And they are constantly getting into arguments with others, with their parents & siblings, with their LOVED ONES. Therefore, they get frustrated. They get depressed. They get demoralized. All sorts of negativity filled their minds.

Question is, what are the causes of these unpleasant events? How do I get rid of them? How can I strengthen and form a healthy relationship with the people I care about?
